

Teneo

EARNING BY HODLING

Teneo creates a Win-Win situation for traders and hodlers, which usually work against each other. With Teneo they don't have to.

Teneo does this by implementing a trading layer on the market of a pegged token.

It's like holding shares of an exchange and earning rewards from the trading volume.

HOW WE PROVIDE THAT

Teneo creates pegged tokens like WBTC for BTC.

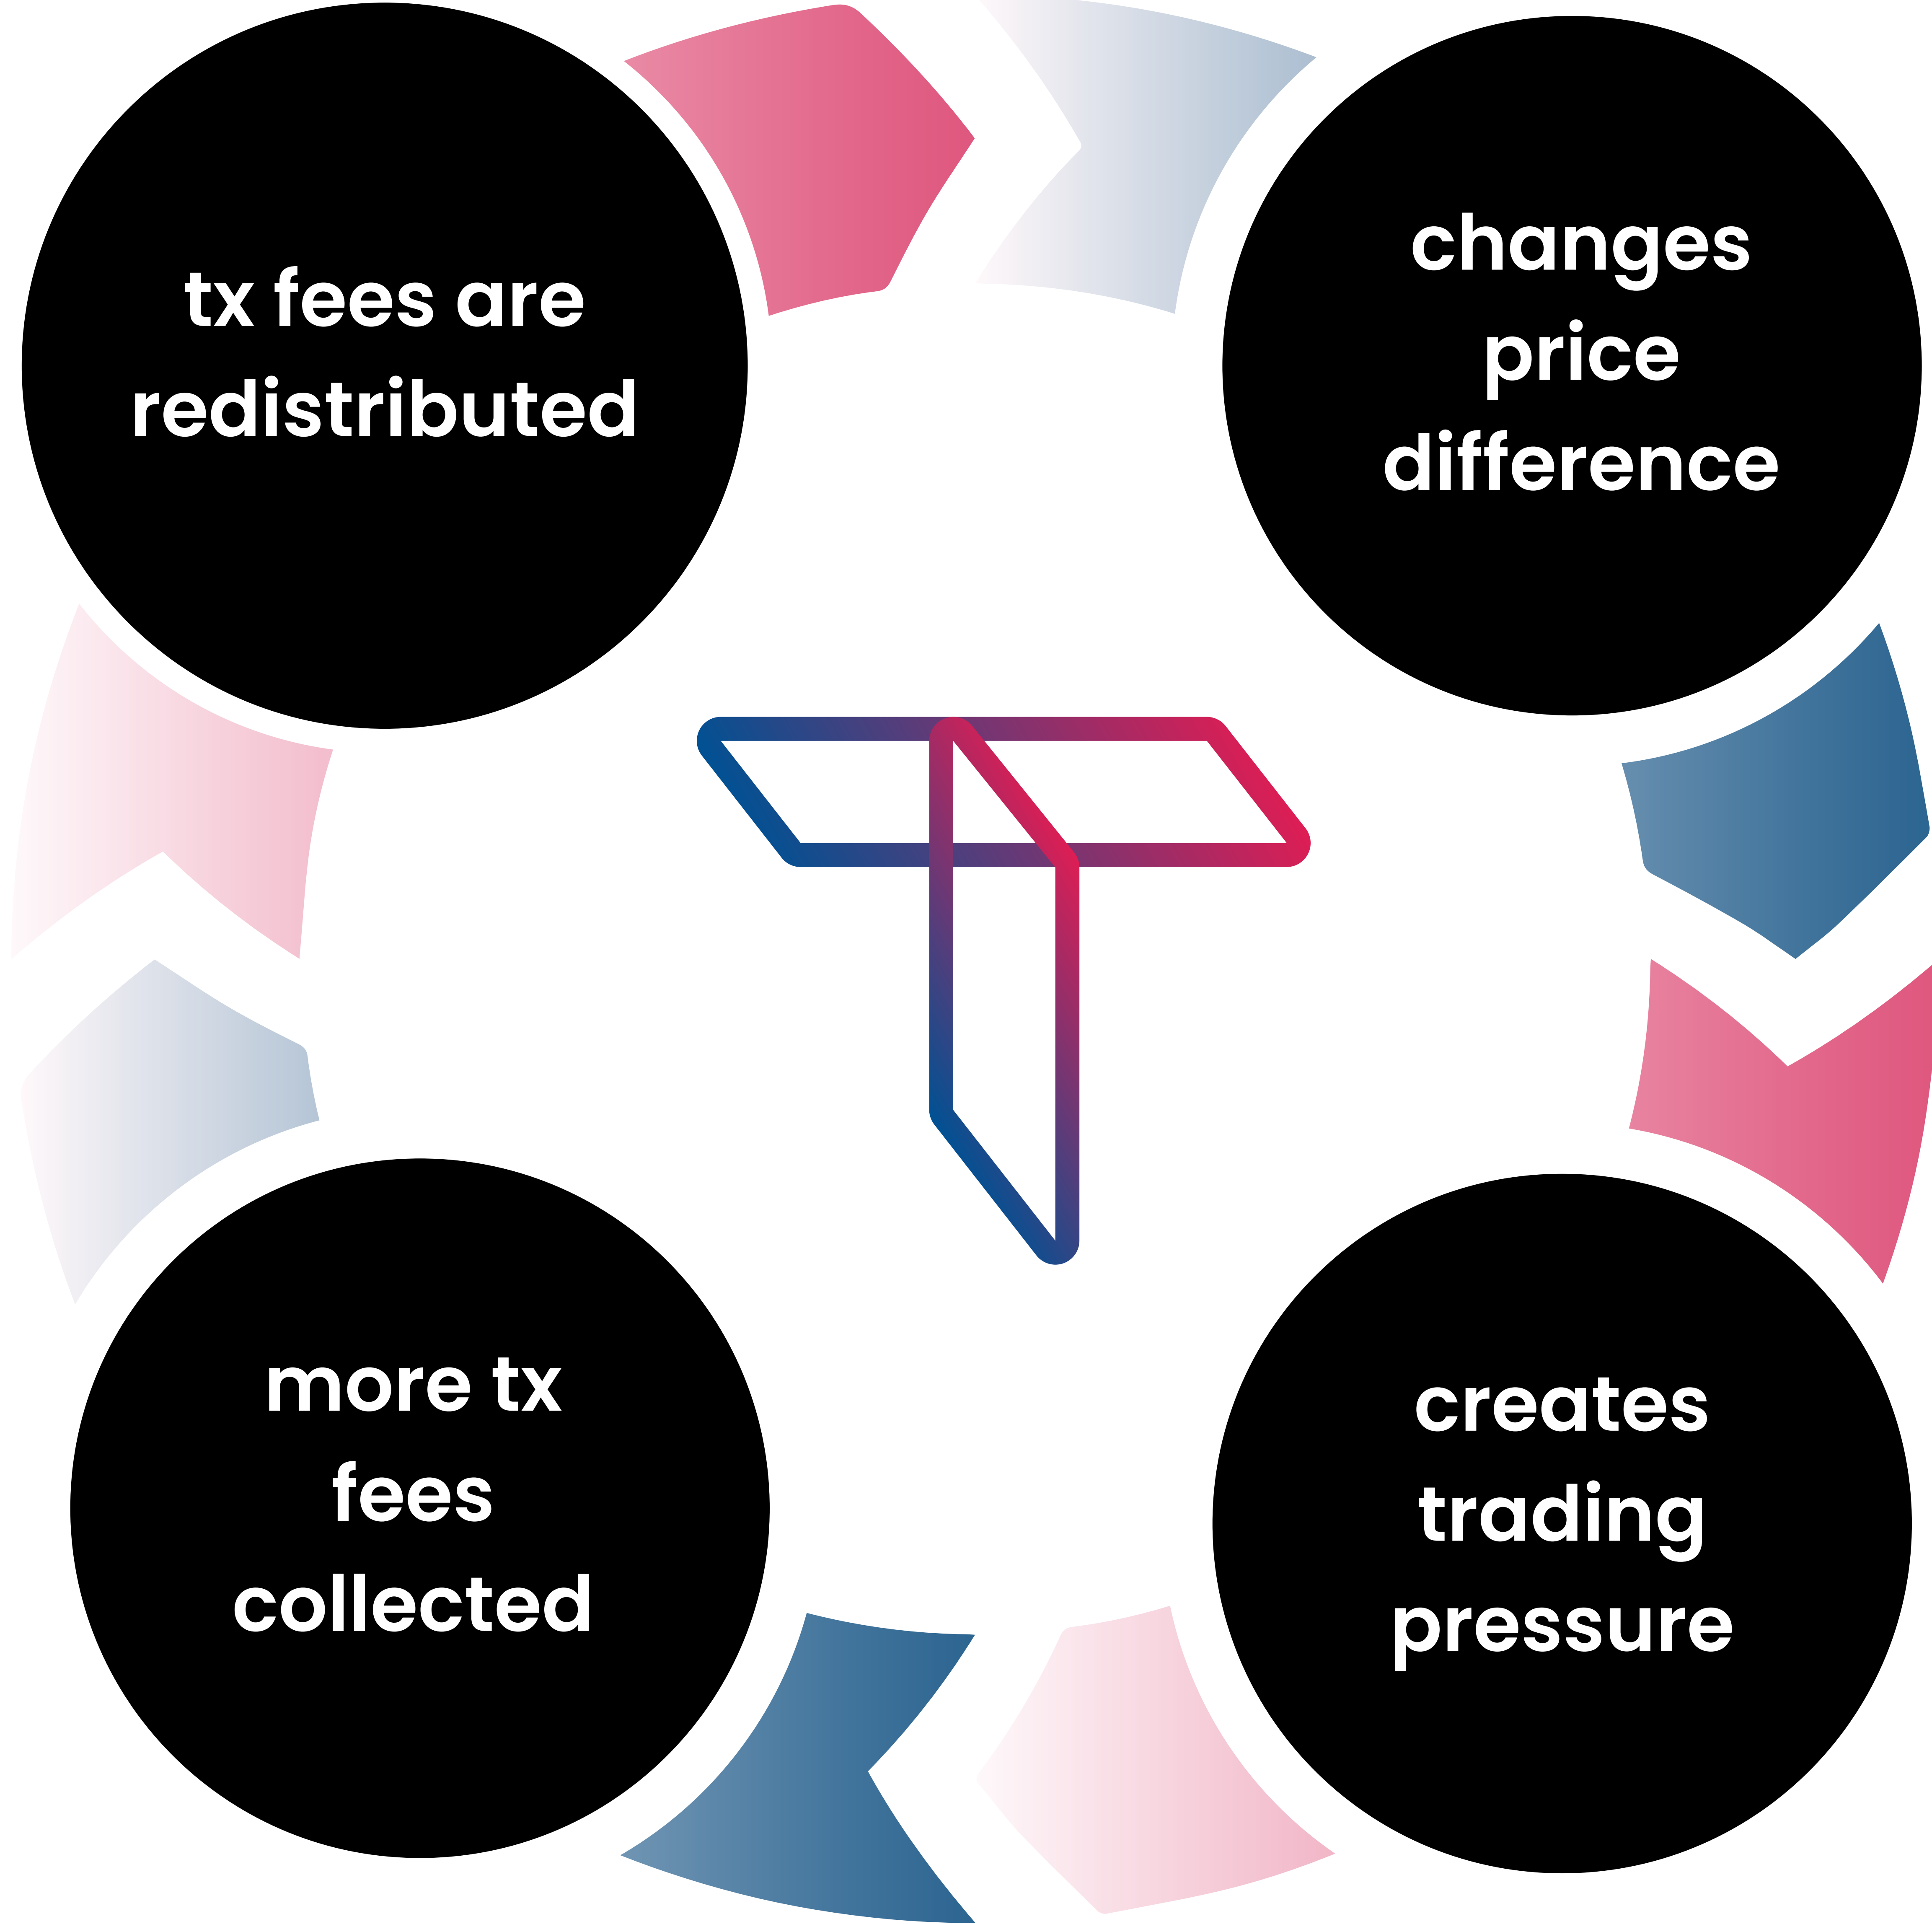

WBTC's price is not much different from BTC's price because arbitrageurs balance between the different market makers like Uniswap, Sushiswap, Kyber, etc.

The difference between WBTC and tenWBTC (the newly created token from the Teneo ecosystem) is that tenWBTC has a transaction fee.

WBTC

The AMM takes a small fee, which is transferred to a DAO wallet, as well as a small amount of the transaction fee.

The most part of the collected transaction fees goes back to the holders.

Fee distribution

The fees collected in the DAO wallet reward the Liquidity Providers in Teneo tokens and open the opportunity of yield farming for the Teneo ecosystem. They are also used to improve the system in general (running costs, devs, marketing, partnerships, listings, ...).

THE TENEO TOKEN

The Teneo token itself is the reward token for the Teneo system.

★ Used for the ICO of the Teneo ecosystem

★ Rewards Teneo Tokens to Liquidity Providers by staking LP-tokens

★ Rewards Teneo holders by staking Teneo

★ Gets bought back from the DAO wallets of the tenXXX Tokens

POTENTIAL

To create a tenXXX Token you need to lock the real XXX Token.

This means that every pegged token benefits from the Teneo system because it takes away the available supply from the market of the underlying token. Therefore Teneo can provide a staking opportunity to nearly every token and provide a positive price effect.
